Dear Mr Sutcliffe,

Re: The impact of high stake, high prize gambling machines on problem gamblers.

I would like to register my support for the Terminate the Terminals campaign at www.fairandopengambling.net

As you will be aware, Fixed Odd Betting Terminals are in operation across the UK. And I'm writing to you to let you know that, like www.fairandopengambling.net, I believe that these Terminals are unfair and should be removed from public use.

These Terminals are too easily accessible to vulnerable people and exploit players in many ways. The Terminals are wholly unfair when compared to the casino versions of the games they seek to replicate.

I would like the regulators and the government to do their duty and effect the removal of these Terminals.

Yours sincerely
